Orders placed in December:

These orders will be considered as placed on 1-15 of the following year. Please make sure to indicate if there are any prints necessary as a holiday gift. Refer to the January turnaround times.

*NOTE: Any orders delayed until after the holidays will go by the original turnaround time listed, plus any add-ons for the wall portraits, etc. Also, I will be on vacation from 12/24 for a full three weeks. So please allow an additional 3 weeks to that turnaround time as I will be spending much needed time with my family.

HOLIDAY CARD ORDERS:

Card orders placed before Nov 13th 2008 (2 weeks before Thanksgiving), can be guaranteed for the week after Thanksgiving (week of Dec 1st, 2008). All other card orders placed from Nov 13-30, 2008 will most likely be ready within a week to 10 days but cannot be guaranteed until on or before December 10th. Please note that certain types of cards that require completion off-site will require shipping time and I cannot guarantee turnaround time.

All card orders placed in December will most likely have to be photo based cards vs. anything on card stock as the turnaround times are slower. Turnaround time can be a matter of days as holiday cards are printed at my lab immediately this time of year.
